

About the ministry

Mike Kennamer serves as MNA Disaster Response Regional Specialist in the Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia (TAG) Region where he coordinates responses within the region, develops resources, and trains, coaches, and encourages individuals and churches to engage in disaster response.

He also serves as manager of the MNA Disaster Response Warehouse in Rome, Georgia where he monitors the inventory and assures that resources are ready for deployment to disaster sites across the U.S. and Canada.

In these roles, Mike gets the opportunity to (directly and indirectly) share Christ's mercy with those impacted by disaster. By praying for and giving to this ministry, you are joining Mike as he ministers to those who have experienced their worst day and shares the hope that is within him.
